[FAQ’s → Envoy Air → Carry-On Liquids Guide] What Is the 3-1-1 Rule on Envoy Air? Complete Step-by-Step Guide

Travelers flying with Envoy Air often ask about the 3-1-1 Rule for carrying liquids through airport security. The 3-1-1 Rule is a security guideline used at many U.S. airports that helps passengers understand how much liquid, gel, aerosol, cream, or paste they can bring in their carry-on baggage.

For travel assistance:
+1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔ +1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔ +1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔
+1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔ +1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔

What Does the 3-1-1 Rule Mean?

The 3-1-1 Rule refers to:

3

Each liquid container must be 3.4 ounces (100 milliliters) or less.

1

All liquid containers must fit inside 1 clear, quart-sized bag.

1

Each passenger may bring 1 quart-sized bag through security.

For questions:
+1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔ +1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔

What Items Are Covered by the 3-1-1 Rule?

The rule generally applies to:

🧴 Shampoo +1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔
🧴 Conditioner +1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔
🪥 Toothpaste +1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔
🧴 Lotion +1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔
💄 Liquid cosmetics +1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔
🧴 Sunscreen +1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔
🧴 Hair gel +1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔

How to Pack Liquids Correctly

Step 1: Use Travel-Size Containers

Ensure each container is no larger than 3.4 ounces.

Support:
+1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔ +1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔

Step 2: Place Items in One Clear Bag

All liquid containers should fit comfortably inside one transparent quart-sized bag.

+1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔ +1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔ +1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔

Step 3: Remove Bag at Security If Requested

Airport security officers may ask passengers to separate liquids during screening.

Assistance:
+1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔ +1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔

Are There Exceptions?

Certain items may qualify for exceptions, including:

✔ Medications
✔ Medical liquids
✔ Baby formula
✔ Breast milk
✔ Essential medical supplies

Passengers should be prepared to declare these items during security screening.

For travel questions:
+1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔ +1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔ +1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔

Can I Pack Larger Liquids?

Yes. Larger liquid containers are generally permitted in checked baggage rather than carry-on luggage.

Examples include:

🧴 Full-size shampoo
🧴 Large sunscreen bottles
🧴 Full-size toiletries

Support:
+1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔ +1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔

Why Is the 3-1-1 Rule Important?

Following the rule can help:

✈ Speed up security screening
✈ Avoid delays at checkpoints
✈ Prevent confiscation of items
✈ Simplify airport travel

For assistance:
+1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔ +1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔ +1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔

Frequently Asked Questions

Does the 3-1-1 Rule apply to Envoy Air passengers?

Yes, passengers traveling through airports that enforce the rule must comply with applicable security requirements.

+1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔ +1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔

Can I bring toothpaste in my carry-on?

Yes, as long as the container follows the 3.4-ounce limit.

+1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔ +1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔

Can I bring a water bottle through security?

Generally, containers with liquids exceeding the limit are not allowed through screening unless empty before security.

+1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔ +1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔ +1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔

Final Thoughts

The 3-1-1 Rule helps passengers travel more efficiently by establishing clear guidelines for liquids in carry-on baggage. Understanding these requirements before arriving at the airport can help avoid delays and make the security screening process smoother.

For travel assistance:
+1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔ +1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔ +1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔
+1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔ +1➞[877]➞622➞0707 ✔

By packing liquids correctly and following airport security guidelines, Envoy Air travelers can enjoy a smoother and more convenient journey.